About our training team:

Gail S. Packer has been Executive Director of the Community Dispute Settlement Center since 1988. With a background in clinical social work, she spent more than 10 years mediating divorce and child custody cases in the Probate and Family Courts. An experienced mediator and trainer, Gail has provided trainings for a broad range of organizations and groups such as human resources professionals, college residential life RA's and staff, eldercare providers, and homeless shelter residents.

Jeanne Cleary has been facilitating difficult and transformative conversations for over 25 years in numerous settings. In her private practice in Watertown, MA, Jeanne provides relational and couples psychotherapy, mediation, conflict engagement strategies and facilitated retreats for corporate, religious, non-profit and educational organizations. Jeanne is an adjunct faculty at UMass Boston Graduate School of Dispute Resolution.

Art Stewart is a mediator and trainer with over 20 years' experience. Former Coordinator of Mediation with the Massachusetts Department of Education for 13 years, he is currently coordinating the mediation program for the Virginia Department of Education. Art is a pioneer and innovator in the field of dispute resolution, having trained and facilitated in nineteen states and Canada.

Also in attendance will be other trainers as role-play coaches.

"Excellent in every way-one of the best courses I have attended. After taking this class, I'm even more interested in pursuing this field." - LAWYER

"I feel like you created a powerful learning community and that you've been very intentional about establishing that." - HUMAN RESOURCE SPECIALIST

"I leave here energized, stimulated—I'm challenged and I love it!" - Educator

"This has been my first training/learning venture away from the area of education...I've learned more about my own students in these 30 hours than I have in the past—but so much more about myself than I would ever have believed! How exciting to be learning for myself and not for a curriculum area-wonderful." — Teacher

"It's a great class I would recommend to anyone interested. I learned skills that I'll apply immediately." — Sales Manager Registration form
